

The Sega Pico - North America Release Checklist

A complete list of all 21 North American Sega Pico game system releases.

Some titles were produced and packaged seemingly at random in one of up to five different cartridge colors. It is not clear if every title received a release in all, or only some, or just one color though. And, hence this checklist provides five check boxes for each release. To further aid variant collectors, featured after each title in parentheses are cartridge color letter codes I have personally verified do exist.

To further note, there are two shades of both blue and yellow, though I have never observed a title that has variants in both shades of either color. The two shades of blue I have seen are that of a light 'sky blue' and that that of a darker 'navy blue'. Likewise, with yellow there is a pale yellow and a more common, warm, brighter shade of yellow.
